Dear Concordian Parents:

The annual “International School Chinese Speech Competition” organized by Thai-Chinese International School (TCIS) will take place on April 30th 2010. The contest is designed to encourage students to apply their Chinese language skills and develop students’ ability to express themselves in Chinese. We would like to encourage our students, joining other students from several international schools in Bangkok, to participate in this event.

Groups and Topics:

Native Speakers (Taiwanese and Chinese)

1. Group I (G1-G4): a fable story 寓言故事
2. Group II (G5-G8): Inspiration from a movie 一部电影给我的启示
3. Group III (G9-12): Moving is more productive than standing still 不怕站，只怕慢

Non-Native Speakers

1. Group I (G1-G4): A fable story 寓言故事
2. Group II (G5-G8): An interesting movie 一部好看的电影
3. Group III (G9-12): When I did something wrong 当我做错事的时候

Prizes: 1st Place: Certificate and 3,000 baht

2nd Place: Certificate and 2,000 baht

3rd Place: Certificate and 1,000 baht

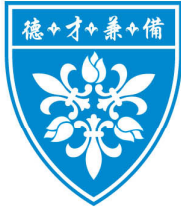

Only two entrants from each group from Concordian International School can be entered in this Chinese speech competition. To ensure fairness, CIS will organize an internal selection process. A panel of judges will be responsible for selecting the overall winners. Students will be judged based on the following criteria: Speech Content 30%, Tone 30%, Pronunciation 20%, Presence 20%.

Parents of students who are interested in participating, please fill in the registration form attached. Both parents and students need to sign and return the slip back to the Chinese teachers before Wednesday, March 31st.

Internal Selection Date: Monday, 5th of April, 2010

This is a great opportunity for our students to practice their Chinese and communicate with other people from the community. We encourage our students to participate in the internal selection process and gain experience in applying their Chinese language skills.

Sincerely Yours,
Chinese Department
